Every senior, if not every student and faculty member, knows of the invaluable service and presence of the Senior Class sponsor — Mrs. Lea D. Hapstak.

She is always around when she is needed, and Hopewell High School wouldn't be the same without her. So well known for her cheerful guidance and assistance, lengthy descriptions are not necessary.

Though the words are few, our wishes and LOVE are plentiful. The 1978 KALEIDOSCOPE staff, along with the entire student body, dedicates our book, this year to HAPPY!!!

The Impossible Comes True!!

HOME of the BLUE DEVILS

Promgoers dance to the music of the Andrew Lewis Band at the first prom held in Leadbetter gymnasium in years.

Anita Sutherland and Gary Edwards seem to be getting away from the crowd as they exhibit a new dance.

Melon balls, shrimp, and a variety of other delectables set the mood in the Auxiliary gymnasium the night of prom.

Betsy Weston and Roy Cox pay to have their prom memory pictures taken.

"The Andrew Lewis Band at Hopewell High School? IMPOSSIBLE!!" These are just a few of the things that were said when it was learned "The" band would perform at the prom. With the prom being held in the gym, the Andrew Lewis Band playing, this prom was something for us all to remember.

Christine Meindle, Jim Wilvert, Kim Calos and Leroy Wallace hover around the shrimp bowl between dances.

The Andrew Lewis Band performs a song from their latest album.

Excitement began to rise when Junior girls heard their fellow class officers making plans for the Miss Hopewell High Pageant. You were constantly being asked if you would enter. Finally a class meeting was called and Junior girls filled the meeting place. Girls were informed that the big night was to be March 17. Pictures had to be taken and sponsors had to be found. Hours of practice were in store for everyone. Helpful Hints included keep a straight back and show some teeth! March 17 arrived and 85 nervous girls awaited backstage. Mrs. Harvey, the Junior Class sponsor, gave much encouragement. The girls were constantly reminded that "You don't have to be a Star." Families and friends watched the girls as they proudly walked across the stage taking a moment longer to smile at the judges. Finalists were chosen and after what seemed like forever, Missy Stinnett was crowned Miss H.H.S. 1977. The runners up were Janet Edwards and Teresa Blowe. Barbara Brobst won the title of Miss Congeniality. Every girl was truly a winner. They all considered it to be worthwhile and a great experience.

Cecilia Jackson passes down her crown to the new Miss H.H.S., Missy Stinnett.

Screams of excitement are heard as Missy Stinnett is named the new Miss Hopewell High School.

Cecilia Jackson awards Teresa Blowe flowers and banner as she is named Second Runner-Up.

Missy Stinnett Is Crowned Miss HHS, 1977

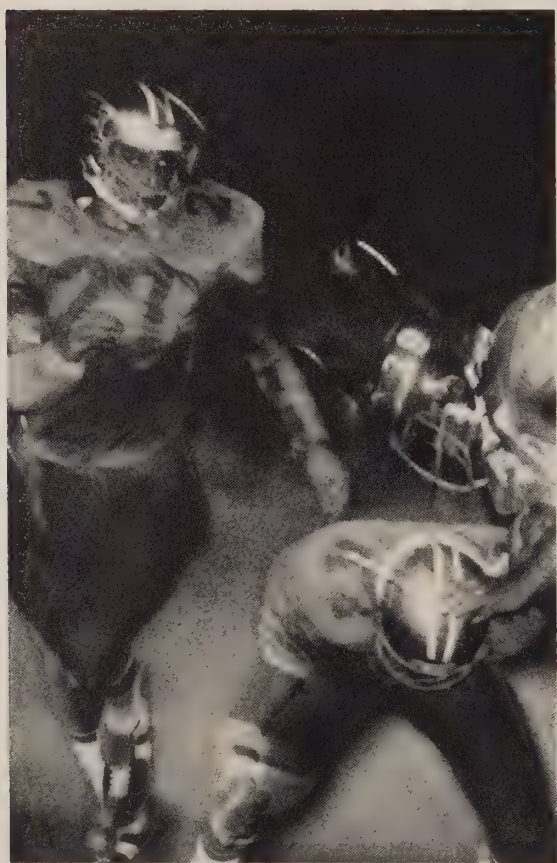

The ten finalists in the Miss H.H.S. pageant were: Missy Stinnett, Sherri Jones, Daphne Atkins, Patti Ellis, Barbara Davis, Wanda Bowen, Betty Titterington, Janet Edwards, Jamel Wyche, and Teresa Blowe.

"Winning feels good." Those words could come from the mouths of the new Homecoming Queen Toy Spatig and the whole football team. Victory was shown by all of H.H.S. fans in expressions of joy and many different actions expressed by the alumni. Thanks to Coach Larry Carter, who has shown much improvement with his team. We all know what victory can feel like.

Devil fans are captivated by the activity on the field.

Dust flies as devil defense road blocks a Colonial Heights rush.

Moving right along, we come to the Homecoming Dance. Music provided by Nightflight. Dancers provided by Hopewell High. The Homecoming dance turned out to be a great success. Students who came to the dance participated in having a good time. Congratulations to the winners, which turned out to be everyone.

On a cool night in late October, hundreds of anxious spectators gathered in the Hopewell High School auditorium to watch one dozen senior girls vie for the title "Hopewell's Jr. Miss." After introducing themselves the contestants participated in their physical fitness routine, followed by the creative and performing arts category. Then it was on to the poise and appearance portion, and finally close to midnight, the winner was chosen, Miss Wanda Bowen, who went to compete for Virginia's Junior Miss, in Roanoke, in January.

Wanda Bowen sheds tears of joy and happiness after being named Hopewell's Junior Miss 1978.

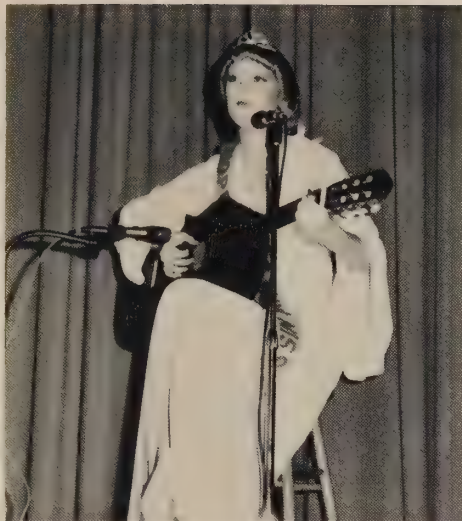

Contestants smile for the audience after introductions in their Youth Fitness outfits.

Teresa Ratliff executes a split during her jazz routine to "California Strut" in the talent portion of the pageant.

Wanda Bowen, Cindy Burton, Janet Edwards, Kim Klein, and Missy Stinnett smile in disbelief at being named the five finalists.

Cheryl East, Junior Miss 1977, sings "Yesterday," accompanying herself on the guitar as part of the pageant opener.

Pageant participants stroll to the tune of "Rocky" during the Poise and Appearance portion.

Wanda Bowen, the new Junior Miss, smiles along with Janet Edwards and Kim Klein; first and second runners-up.

Denise Chivers performs a monologue and shows slides of Paris, the "land she loves."

Mr. Harvey Hudson, acclaimed announcer and Master of Ceremonies for the pageant this year, talks to "Treasure Chest," the group who entertained the audience.

Toy Spatig graciously receives her award after being named winner of the Creative and Performing Arts division of the pageant.

A look of animation registers on the face of Missy Stinnett as she is crowned.

On November 23, before the Thanksgiving Holidays, an assembly was held for the crowning of Miss Noel, sponsored by the Hopewell Jaycees. Miss Chrissy Herman, last years Miss Noel, was on hand to crown Missy Stinnett, the new Miss Noel for 1977. Terry Brown was the first runner-up and Marzetta Williams was second.

Missy, Terry, and Marzetta rode in a special float for Miss Noel and her court in Hopewell's Christmas parade on December 3. Over the Christmas Holidays, Missy helped Santa Claus at Roses Department Store.

Miss Noel is voted on by the Senior Class.

The Sophomore class had many girls to pick from but only one was chosen as Sweetheart. She was Denise Holbert, with first runner-up Stephanie Wheeler, and second runner-up Kim Toote.

Presenting . . . Mr. 'K' and Miss 'K'

Mr. 'K' Marcus Thomas

Miss 'K' Barbara Brobst

This year candidates and finalists for the title of Mr. 'K' and Miss 'K' were chosen by the Senior Class in February. The 1978 choices are Marcus Thomas for Mr. 'K' and Barbara Brobst for Miss 'K'.

Both of these young people have been very much in evidence during their tenure at Hopewell High School.

Barbara was the Sophomore Class President, a semi-finalist for Sophomore Sweetheart, Junior Class Representative, Miss Congeniality in the Miss HHS pageant, a member of DIVE, SGA, Salt and Pepper, and was chosen as The Friendliest girl for the Senior Superlatives.

Marcus has played junior varsity and varsity basketball, junior varsity and varsity baseball, is in the Monogram Club, on the Student Advisory Committee, and is the Senior Class Vice-President.

"Hats off" to both Marcus and Barbara our Mr. 'K' and Miss 'K'.

Mr. 'K' finalists. 1st Row: Marcus Thomas, Barry Atwater. 2nd Row: David Barnes, Robert Turner. 3rd Row: Rush Smith, David Ross.

Fourteen H. H. S. students, Angela Vergara, Becky Booker, Daphne Atkins, Theresa McCann, Debbie Hoeckel, Robin Wells, Jodie Leavitt, Holly Clatterbuck, Bobby Winne, Robert Ortiz, Bruce Sculthorpe, Herb Fitzell, James Harrison, and David Barnes traveled to Germany this summer accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Pleasant. As part of the school exchange program, these students stayed in homes in Peine, West Germany. Before arriving at their host homes, the students toured Bamberg and Nuremberg and stayed in Coburg for their three day field trip. While in Peine, the students traveled to several interesting historical sites such as the Berlin wall. They also toured the largest Volkswagen plant in the world, a steel mill, the local brewery, and a local newspaper plant. A trip was planned to climb the Harz mountains.

Last July, 13 Hopewell High School students and their sponsor Mrs. V. J. Springer left HHS for their host home at the Grove Comprehensive School in Newark, England. Before going to their host homes, they toured many points of interest. They went to pubs, rode Double-Decker buses, and castles. In London, they saw London Bridge, the changing of the guards, and Picadilly Circus, Big Ben and Westminster Abbey. They saw Sherwood Forest while in Newark, home of Robin Hood. After three fun weeks, they returned to the U.S.

Outstanding runners were named at the Spring Sports Banquet.

Below. Award-winning tennis players. Todd Butterworth, Teresa Saunders, Virginia Reese, and Peter Eliades display their trophies after the awards banquet.

HHS Students Earn Recognition

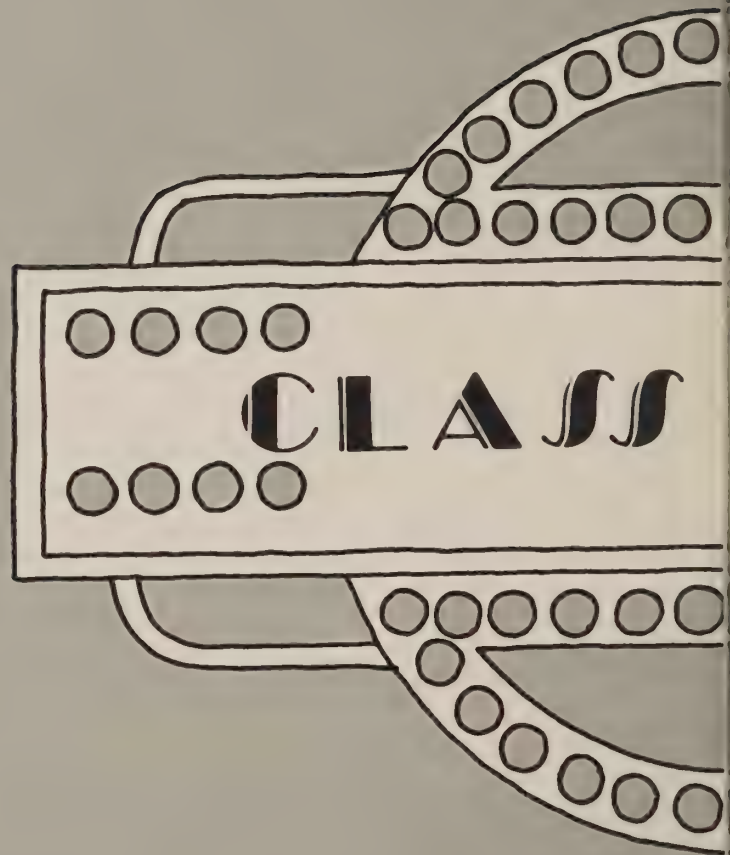

Outstanding students at Hopewell High were recognized for their athletic and academic achievements. Their efforts were rewarded in the end. Awards were presented in the fields of Wrestling, Track, Cross Country, Tennis, Baseball, and Girls Softball. Ronnie Stidham and Kelly Futch received outstanding sportsmanship awards.

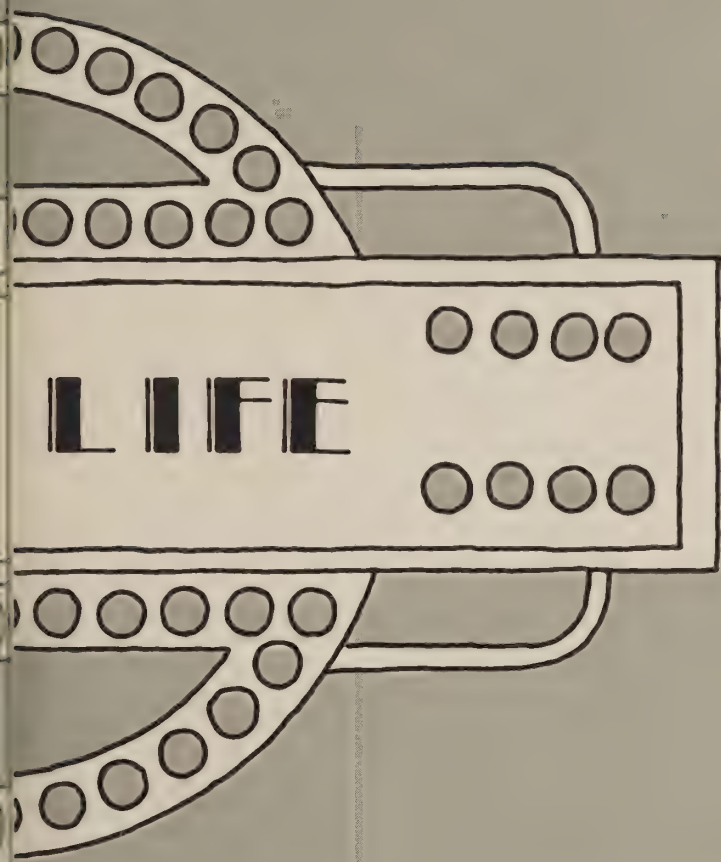

Academically, Chip Halstead was recognized as an NMSQT Finalist with three other students receiving honorable mention. Lisa Turner and Jeff Bartlett were accepted to attend the Governor's school for the gifted at Mary Washington College. Karen Cameron and David Ross were named Outstanding Boy and Girl by the Optimist Club.

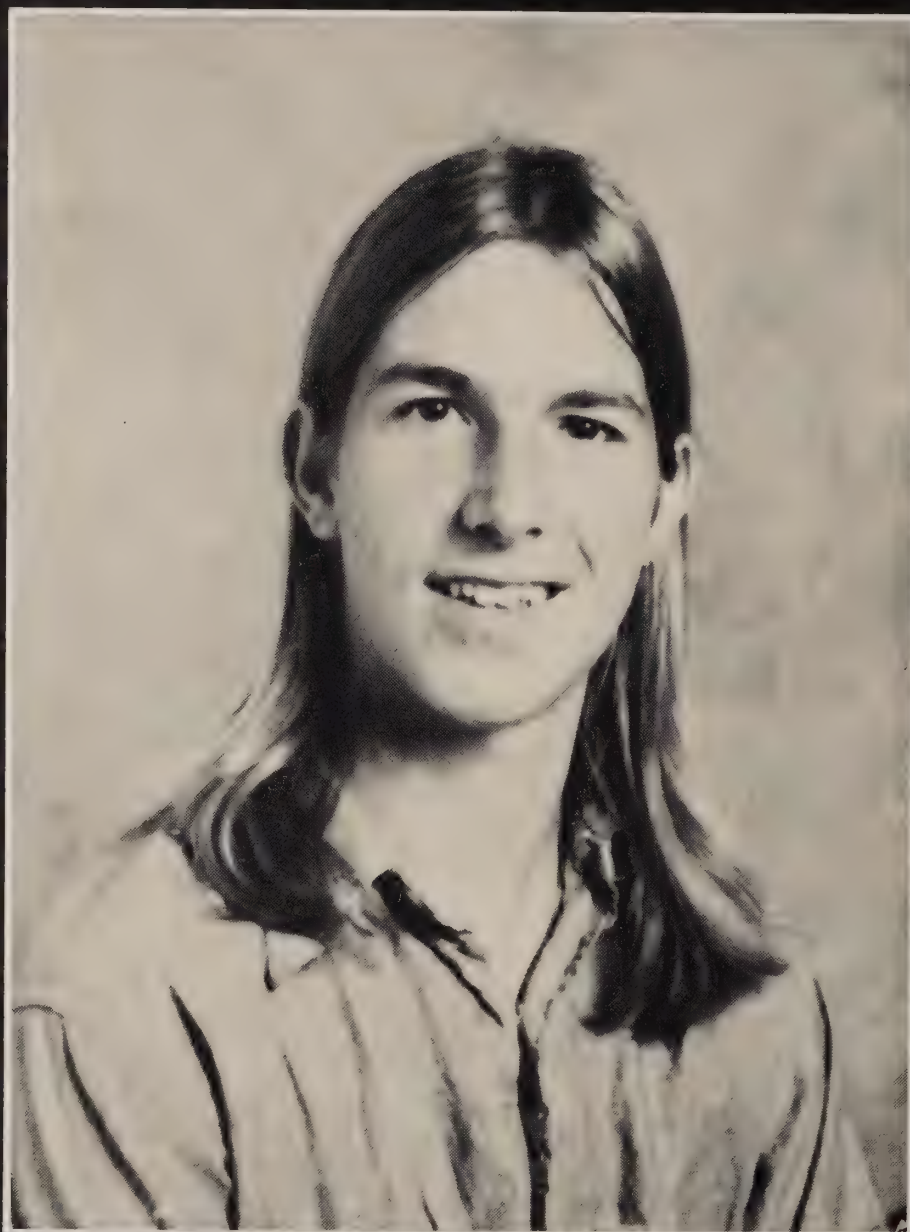

Right. Lisa Turner and Jeff Bartlett who were chosen for the Governor's School for the Gifted.

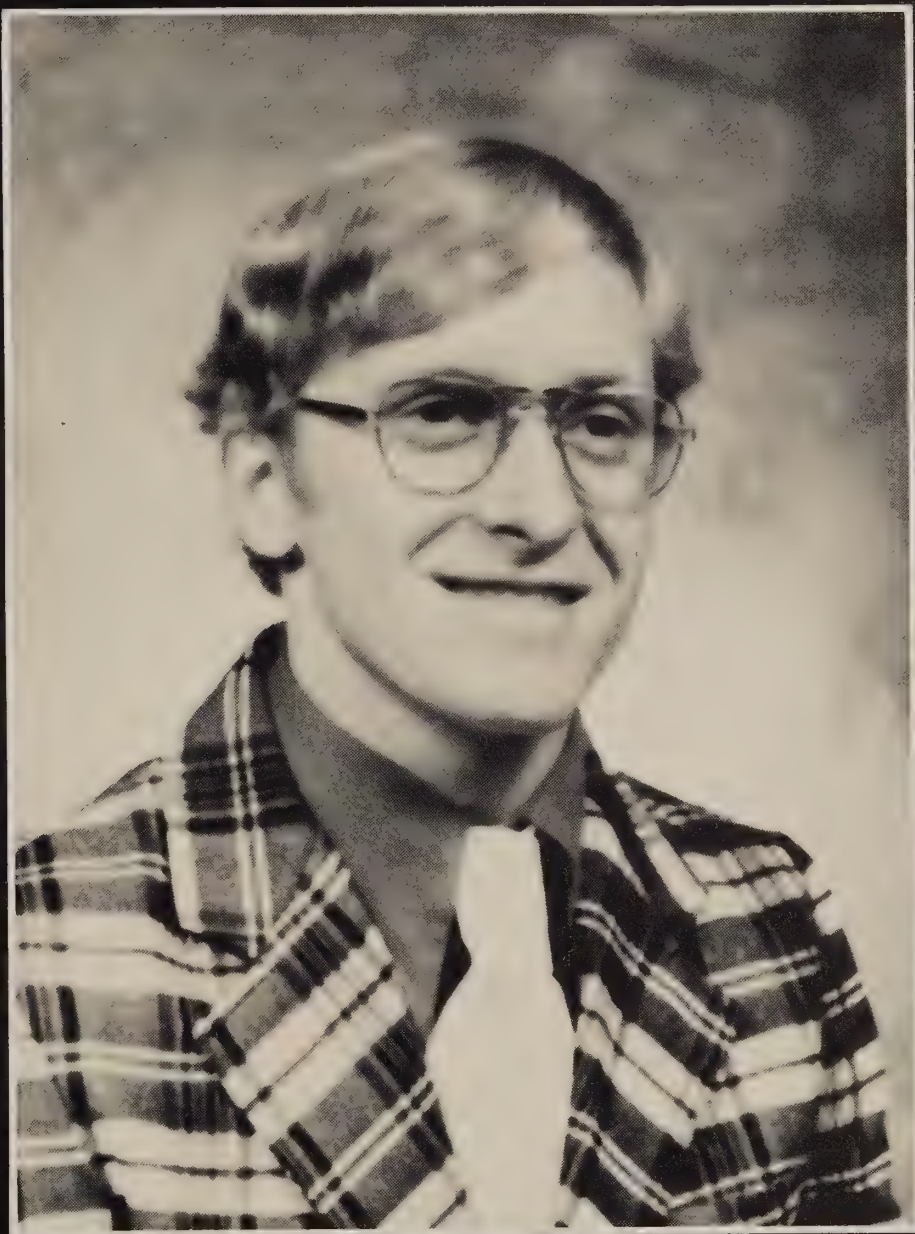

Pam Chadwick, Chip Halstead, Margaret McKeathern, and David Ross are congratulated by Principal Ronnie Bugnar for their outstanding NMSQT scores.

"Back to School" — Last Time

"Can it really be the first day of school? Wow! Didn't the summer fly by," many people say on that first day. Everyone can hardly wait to recount all the events of their summer — where they went, what they did, who they dated. It seems as if the summer has been both a blink and an eternity. It almost appears that just yesterday you were taking your Algebra II exam and praying, but at the same time it seems like a year since you've seen some of your friends. That first day is full of expectations — "Will I ever survive Trig?" — and disappointments — "Why didn't I take Art IV rather than Advanced Biology?" People both smile and frown over their new schedules. They may judge the teachers by what happens on that first day. You may want to spend the first days easing back into school while your teachers are ready to work, work, work. However, after that first week or so, it seems that everyone is settled into their new schedules and summer and that first day are all but forgotten.

Seniors Elect Superlatives

hat exactly is a Senior Superlative? To some people it seemed unimportant and a waste of time. Others really took their time in casting their vote for the most worthy person. Nominations were taken, and after voting and revoting by all members of the senior class, the winners were declared. Though every member of the class of '78 is special, these people were given the privilege to reign as the elected superlatives.

Seniors Take Time to Study

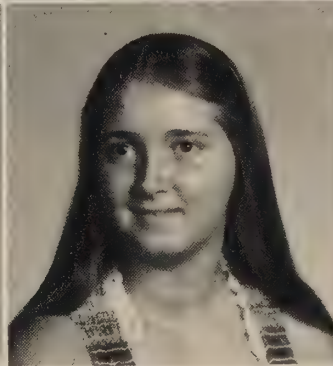

Most Studious.

Margaret McKeathern and Chip Halstead can't seem to find enough books.

The last year of High School is not all play time. True, there is the fun, and excitement of being a senior, but many important decisions are to be made and must be given a great deal of thought. SAT's must be taken and college applications submitted. The term paper is also considered very time consuming by many. Despite the work, all too quickly the year is gone and only memories survive.

No Longer Minors

Eighteen is a magical number for many. It marks the time when you are officially an adult. No longer "legally" barred from going to certain movies and clubs, and buying beer. Some may welcome their new freedom, while others sense no noticeable difference. True there are many new or not so new freedoms, but there are also new responsibilities. At 18, through voting, you finally have a voice in the way the government is run. You are also completely responsible for your own actions. Being 18 marks the end to your relatively carefree life of high school. Soon you'll be out in adult life, either working or attending college. At first it all seems wonderful, nevertheless, slowly a twinge of regret may creep up. While yearning for the freedom of being 18, you may also for a moment look back at the security you've had and how it will decrease with this new stage of life, but soon you forget this and only look forward. WOW!! You're finally 18.

Students Involved in Elections

Statewide and local elections involve everyone in Hopewell, including the students at H.H.S. Some were eligible to vote, while others were content to help campaign or work the polls on election day. A mock election held in school through the Government classes helped to drum up political spirit. With the help of students, the Republican candidate John. N. Dalton was elected to the governorship of Virginia on November 8, 1977.

Advanced Chemistry students take a break to clown around in the lab.

Graduation is a word that every Senior treasures. It is an end and a beginning. Eighteen years are left behind and an unknown number begin. Looking back, some may sigh with relief. It's finally over, but fond memories may bring a touch of sadness — your first formal dance, your very own car, all the friends you've made. So much must be left behind. However, the bright new horizons and preparing for graduation may help you to forget your momentary sadness. Soon you're immersed in addressing announcements and planning your after graduation trip to the beach. Nevertheless, on that final night when you hear the words "You are now officially a graduate of Hope-well High School," all of those memories both happy and sad will come back one more time.

Class Flirts.

Matt Broughton and Barbara Davis can't seem to make up their minds on what they really want.

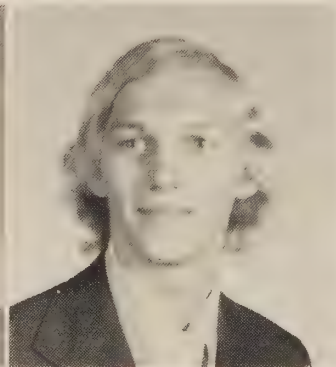

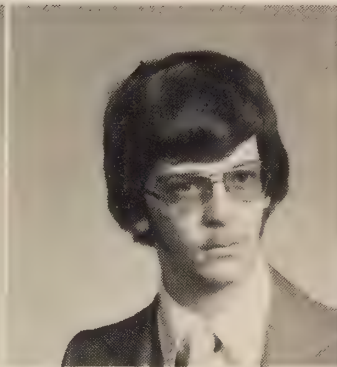

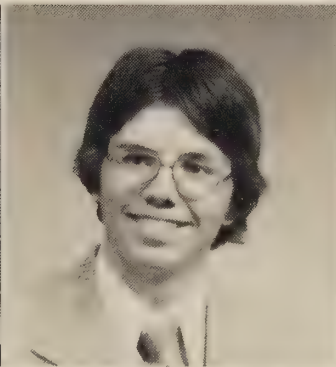

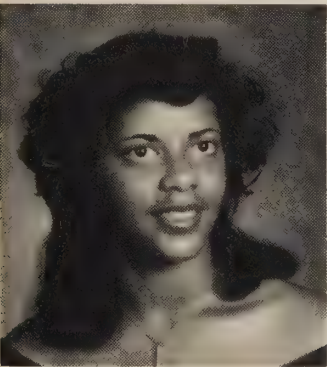

The senior year is full of contemplation; deciding what to do after graduation. Some decide on college, while others would rather go straight to work. Still others decide on going into a branch of the service. No matter what decision was made, the first year out of high school is busy and requires a great deal of responsibility.

4 dvanced classes are offered to seniors in English and Government. SENIOR PRIVILEGES FEW;

Senior privileges have faded over the years, but one big one still remains. Seniors are allowed to leave for lunch five minutes before underclassmen. This enabled them to purchase their lunch, thus shortening lines for the juniors and sophomores. Early release is also granted to seniors who already have the credits they need, and want to be dismissed early for work or other reasons.

Students in City Hall ?

As part of the Optimist Club sponsored Youth Appreciation Week, Seniors at H.H.S. were invited to "run" the city of Hopewell for one day. The senior class elected Toy Spatig as mayor, Rush Smith, Matt Broughton, Chip Halstead, and Merle Comfort to serve as the student City Council. This Council then appointed fellow students to serve as city employees. The students enjoyed their learning experience and found being educated about the government employees' work day very interesting.

JUNIORS

Starting preparations for the coming year, the juniors elected their officers in the late spring of '77. Leading the class were Robert Ortiz as president, Tricia Jones as vice-president, Dianne Andrews as secretary, and Lisa Turner as treasurer. The officers were joined later in the year by Mrs. Harvey and Mrs. Lee as sponsors. These teachers consented to help the class as a team, but they were too late to aid in getting ready for the Ring Dance.

Class members worked together on two car washes, sponsored a soc hop and prepared for the Miss Hopewell High Pageant to add to the class treasury. Without these efforts the class of '79 would never have gotten on its feet.

Familiar faces worked behind the desks of various offices at school this year. Walking into the main office, a friend might ask, "May I help you?" Many juniors have taken on the responsibility of helping out as office assistants this year, since study halls were discontinued. Working in the offices provided good experience for many students and helped some make decisions about career choices.

t the last pep rally, the juniors received, for the first time, the coveted Spirit Stick. Throughout the whole of last year and the beginning of this year they had yelled their hearts out and still did not win. Even the sophomores, the underclassmen, received it before the juniors. The entire class was on its feet for that pep rally and their sore throats were nothing in comparison to the satisfaction of finally winning the Spirit Stick.

Other classes said that the juniors were a dead class, that they had no pride or spirit for the team. But the class knew that, eventually, their turn would come. And at that last pep rally, it finally did.

English — an Imperative for Graduation

Every year students have to suffer through 55 minutes of English class. Each year nouns, pronouns, adjectives, and adverbs stare the students in the face. The teachers try to make it interesting but it is almost impossible when the same thing is taught year after year. Advanced classes provided variation for some students but 55 minutes every year causes a large amount of boredom for the students. It is necessary to endure English class yearly if a person wishes to graduate. So, classrooms are filled with students who do not wish to learn, but just wish to get by in order to graduate.

Mr. Mac's sixth period English seems to have had a long day.

ould the Class of '79 win the race against time and be ready for the Ring Dance? The gun went off at 7 a.m. Saturday, September 10th, and the contest began. Five lonely juniors were ready but was the task too great? They put forth a lot of effort and little by little the troops started arriving. By the halfway mark everything was under control. Many of the parachutes were up, the long tables and chairs removed and streamers hanging. Tables were covered, candles placed, food set up. Four o'clock and the finish line was crossed. All was ready.

Eight p.m. and the first couples started arriving. Dancing to the music of "Dream" and eating refreshments provided by students and various merchants, the excited juniors waited for "The Ring." Now officially juniors, the rest of the evening flew by and at midnight the magic evening was over.

Presently, the juniors are trying to make this year an enjoyable one because they realize that next year will be filled with college boards, achievements, cap and gown orders and many other things. They are attempting to have fun before having to worry about college acceptances and rejections. Juniors are very active in clubs and programs that are present both in and out of school. They are always evident at school gatherings and functions that promise a good time. You can always count on a junior to help out and be willing to work at any time.

SOPHOMORES

Youngest Class Gets Started Off

In October the Sophomore class got underway by electing officers. Many ran for these offices but only four were chosen to represent their class for the upcoming year. They were Zinna Northington, president; Rhonda Bowman, vice-president; Beverly Brinkley, secretary; and Bonita Carr, treasurer. Meetings were held, plans were made, and money was raised all leading up to their first "formal" dance. Miss Janie Pritchard, sponsor, was always there to help them along.

The Sophomores started the school year off with much enthusiasm. They showed their school spirit at pep rallies, which helped them to win the spirit stick; football games, and basketball games. The Sophomores not only supported school sports but widely participated in all Varsity and Junior Varsity activities. The Junior Varsity cheerleading squad, which was solely composed of Sophomores, were always at the events leading the cheering section.

The tenth grade class had, in a short time, made an impression on the entire school. They displayed an interest in Hopewell High. Class members were chosen to represent their grade in the Student Council and on the SGA. Only one Sophomore participated in the vocal ensemble, "Mixed Company." Eric Myers sang, danced, and played the piano for the group. The Sophomores definitely proved that they wanted to become a vital part of HHS.

Along with having to get used to a new and bigger school, Sophomores had many changes in store for them. First of all, they had a wider selection of electives to choose from, especially in the vocational areas. They also experienced a new Teacher Advisory system instead of the traditional homeroom. Sophomores were introduced to an exam policy, which required them to take mid-term and final exams. Overall the Sophomore class was able to adjust to these changes and others during their first year at HHS.

Led by their president, Zinna Northington, big plans were made, and hours of hard work were put into decorating and organizing, all getting ready for the Sophomore Sweetheart dance. Many Sophomore girls were excited about running for the title of "Sophomore Sweetheart." The winners were announced on the night of the dance. All the preparation was worth the effort due to the fact that the dance was a huge success.

This is a large, dense collage of black and white photographs, likely from a yearbook. The images are of various sizes and are arranged in an overlapping, non-linear fashion. The subjects are predominantly students, captured in a wide range of activities and settings. Some photos show students in classrooms, others in sports uniforms (like basketball and football), and many in social or candid moments. The collage is a visual representation of school life, featuring students of diverse backgrounds and interests. Notable elements include a student in a basketball jersey, a student in a football helmet, and several students in formal or semi-formal attire. The overall composition is busy and celebratory, capturing the essence of a school year.

Bugnar, Daniel, Thweatt — The Big Team

The daily Teacher Advisory period consists of hearing announcements read over the intercom, reading the bulletin, and doing various administrative tasks. Some teachers view it as an effective system while others see it as a necessary evil. However, whatever their opinion of the system, most teachers really seem to care about their T.A. students. Whether it be a daily word of inspiration or a Christmas party, all of them do something special for their group sometime during the year. They really get to know these students that they see every morning for ten minutes and by the end of the year, even if they disagree with the system's effectiveness, they probably ended up enjoying it.

One may wonder how HHS teachers survive teaching 100 or more students daily. Luckily every teacher has some time during the day to recuperate. They each have one free period, during which they may do whatever they please. They may choose to spend the time correcting papers and making up tests, or simply relaxing in a lounge, the Activities Office, or their rooms. Whatever they do, they have several minutes of well-deserved peace and quiet.

Hopewell High Loses Mr. Harvey Martin

This school year the International Exchange School, which arranges trips to Europe for groups of students, gained Mr. Harvey Martin, and Hopewell High School lost him. In early November Mr. Martin, HHS French teacher, went to Utah to assume a position with the International Exchange School. He taught French and coached tennis at H.H.S. for three years and is hailed by students as a great teacher. The reason for Mr. Martin's new job began when he took a group of Hopewell High students to Europe in the summer of 1976 under a program by the International Exchange School. While in France, he guided a few tours of Paris for other students there under the same program as his group. The company was apparently impressed with his tours and in the fall of 1976, he called him and informed him that he might be offered a position. Finally in late October of 1977 he was officially offered a position. After getting the school board's approval, he finally began to realize that he would be doing something he said he had always dreamed of. Besides an increase in pay, he will be able to travel in Europe for ten weeks each year. With mixed emotions about leaving H.H.S., Mr. Martin left in November. After Thanksgiving, and many rumors about who the new teacher would be, Miss Deborah Drinkard arrived to fill the vacancy. French students agree that she is a good teacher, but of course, they will never forget Mr. Martin.

"My Parents have to come pick up my report card? Not if I don't warn them. They'll KILL me if they see my progress reports!" November 30, and December 1, Death Row for some, were the dates set for parents to come meet with the child's Teacher Advisor. Students TA's called and made appointments with their parents. For most it was not as bad as they expected, for others it was worse. Parents and teachers alike agreed it was a good idea and should be repeated.

"Salt and Pepper" is something new at Hopewell High. No, it's not the stuff you sprinkle on food to make it taste better. "Salt and Pepper" is the nickname given to the group discussions carried out this year by Mrs. V. J. Springer and Ms. Sarah Jones with Mr. Ronnie Bugnar and Mr. Albert Thweatt observing. During these talks, an equal number of black and white students get together to discuss the racial problems at school, to get to know each other, to learn to relate through trust games, and for a free lunch. Will anything come of these talks? It's up to the students to put forth the effort and see.

Ms. Rhonda Davis, you may not see her at school in the afternoon but you might spot her going down the road in her green Celica. She's the new COE Coordinator and has only two classes in the morning, Economics and Steno II. Born and raised in Virginia Beach she attended three colleges before graduating from Virginia Commonwealth University. In addition to teaching, Ms. Davis has spent three years as a legal secretary and three as a medical secretary.

Her leisure activities include bowling and baking, but this time is limited. Her daughter, Michelle, and French poodle, Ralph, are very time consuming. The busy Ms. Davis is a welcome addition to the Hopewell School System.

Mrs. Lori Ritter, secretary to Mr. Daniel, and Mr. Henderson, must also take care of the many needs of the faculty and students.

Mrs. Carter, new to Hopewell High this year, is in charge of the Attendance Office.

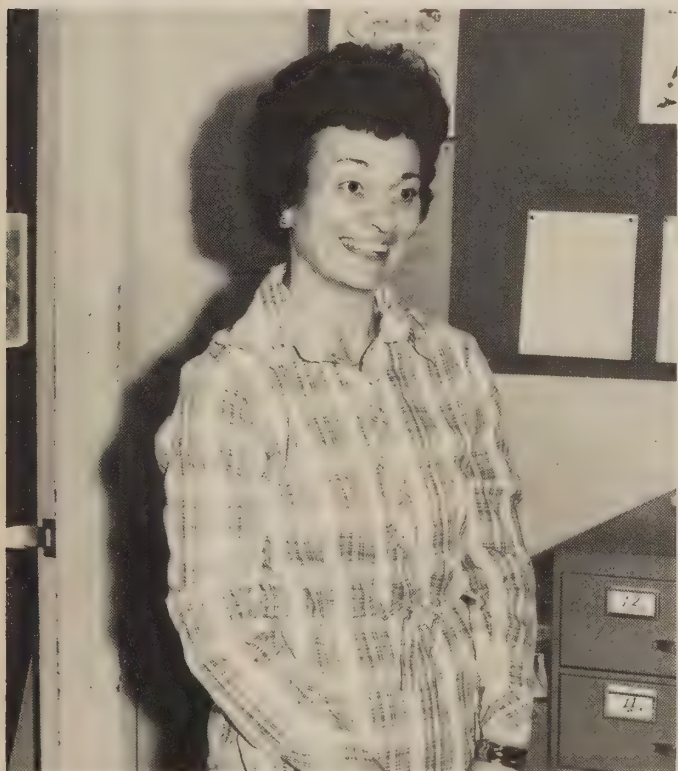

Mrs. Loretta Jackson, secretary to Mr. Thweatt, stops to give a smile for our camera before filing some papers.

Relaxing in the Activities Office during lunch, is Miss Stacey Kroener, secretary to Mr. Bugnar.

Mrs. Betty Strickland, secretary in the Guidance Office, greets students on their way to meet with their guidance counselor.

Mrs. Lydia Williams, Head Secretary in the Main Office, keeps up with a very busy schedule at all times.

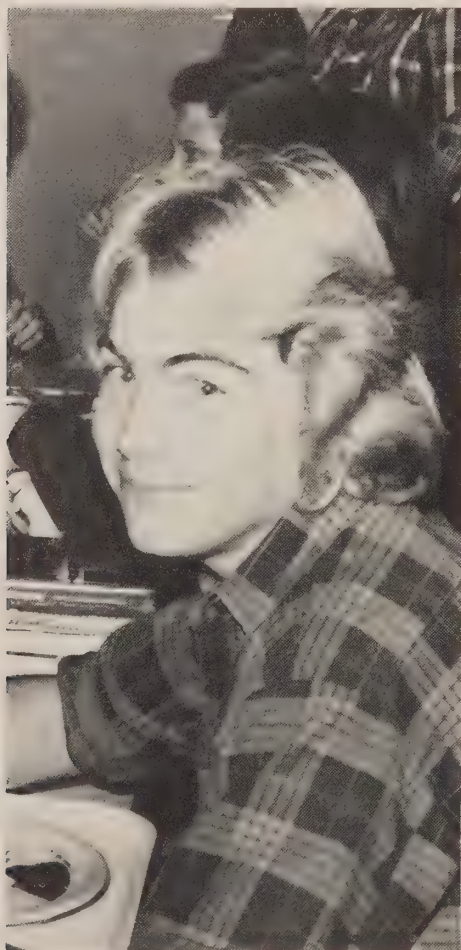

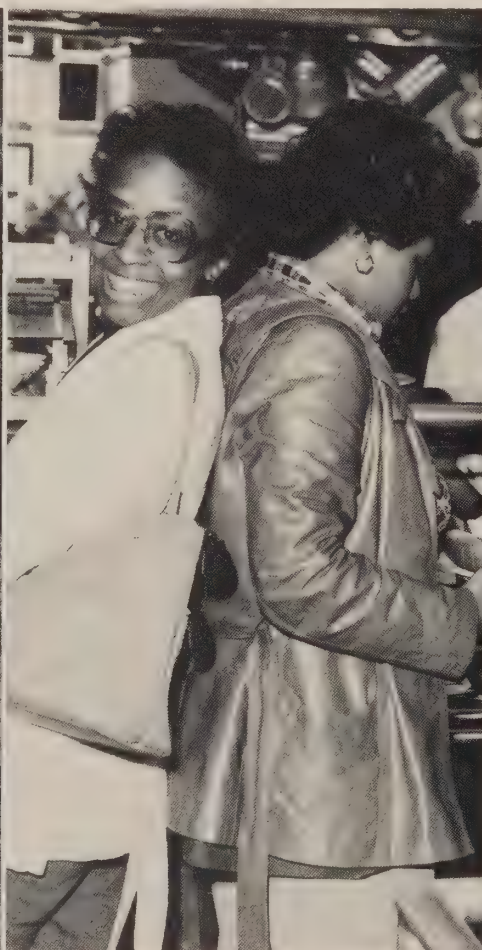

The cafeteria staff is: Mattie Parrish, Gladys Weston, Kathleen Young, Rassie Honaker, Josephine Kendrick, Diana Roberts (Occupational student), Jo Ann Langford, Nannie Hendrickson, and Rose Miller.

Cafeteria — One of the Busiest Rooms

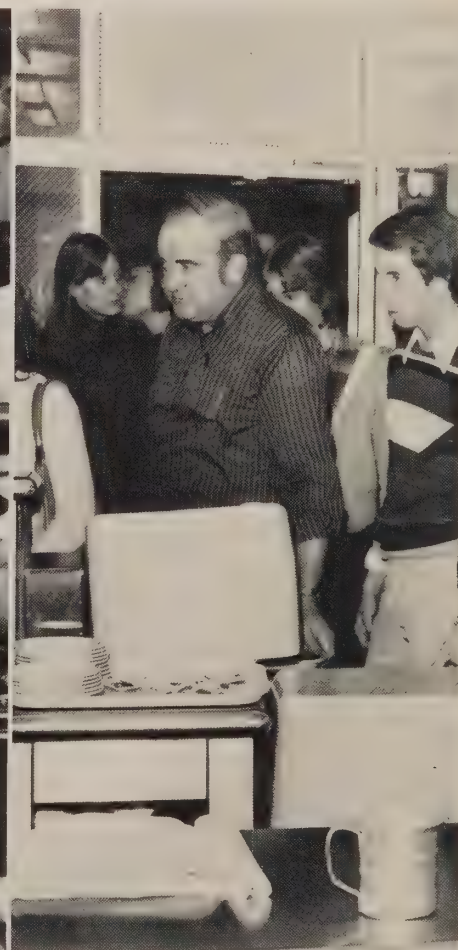

David Buyalos seems to be caught off guard as he flashes a quick smile to our photographer.

Everybody likes to clown a little bit, especially when there is a camera around.

Some people can hardly wait to get to lunch, but others don't really seem to care.

Mr. Jimmy Covington, also known as "Bad Boy" to some, and "Hopewell's No. 1 Fan" to others, takes a short break in the auditorium.

Maintenance Men Keep Busy

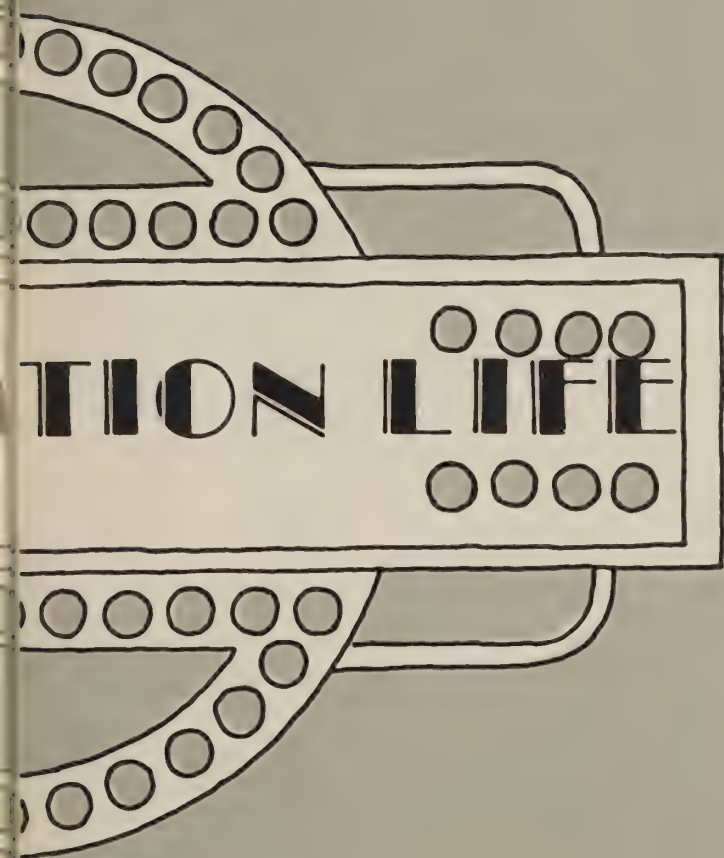

Mr. Tony Jones, (left) and Mr. Doug Campbell (below) are two of the members on Hopewell High's Maintenance Staff.

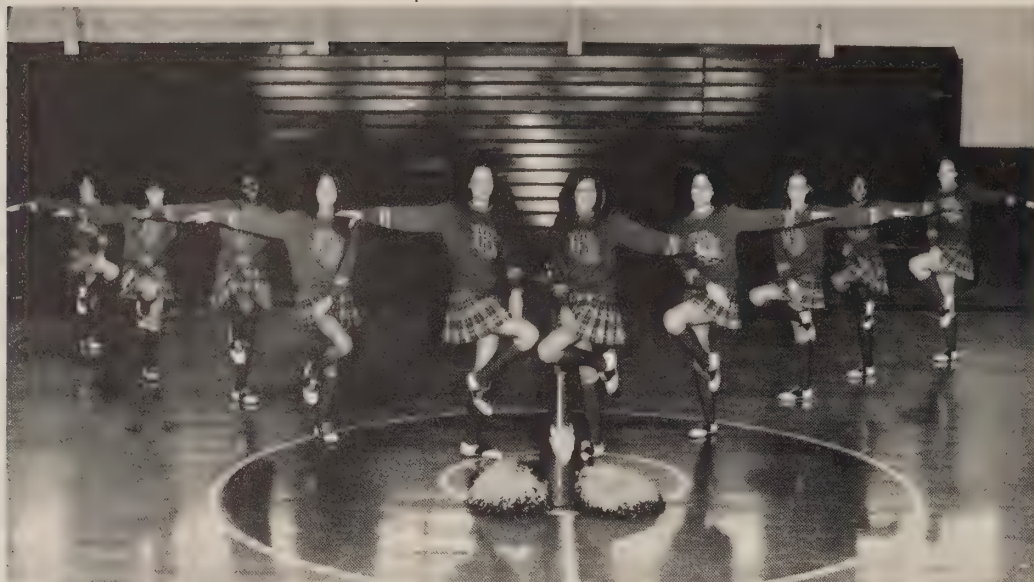

The Maintenance men are always kept busy repairing heating and cooling systems, putting in new lights, and different requests made by the individual teachers and administration.

“How come ya’ll never do anything for us?” More than once this question was put to the Varsity Cheerleaders. Although refreshments were given to the football, Cross-Country, basketball teams etc., many people still did not realize how much the Varsity Cheerleaders actually did. An average week, (for these not so average girls) consisted of practice twice a week, painting signs once a week, and cheering at one to two games per week. Weekends seemed the only time to go to church, do homework, be with friends and catch up on all the sleep lost during the week. The responsibilities of being a cheerleader were best expressed by Miss Janie Pritchard, Cheerleading Sponsor, at the All-Sports Banquet last year. She said, “It is the one year long sport whose participants receive no recognition . . . but as you can see, they hang right in there doing their best to cheer you on to victory.”

J.V. Cheerleaders Beverly Brinkley, Karen Briggs, and Beth Mabry stand up and holler at a J.V. Basketball Game.

"Guard 'em, Guard 'em!" shouts Sherrie Jones to the Devils during the Homecoming Game against Colonial Heights.

"Tick-tock, can't stop the Devils . . ." chant Bobbi Richmond, Rhonda Cunningham, Beth Mabry, and Karen Briggs as they encourage the J.V. basketball team while warming up for a game.

Problems seemed to follow the J.V. Cheerleaders like the plague. In midsummer they came to find out they had no sponsor and no uniforms. Practices were carried on diligently and in October they finally found a sponsor in the form of Miss Janie Pritchard, the Varsity sponsor. They made and bought two new uniforms and thought they were out of trouble. But often they had difficulties in getting to away games and parents had to be called upon to drive. Through thick and thin the J.V.'s have come out with smiles on their faces and pride in their voices, they were representing Hopewell High.

Newspaper Staff Learns; Then Publishes

Mrs. Pleasant's sixth period Journalism class takes notes and work on preparation of an edition of the HOPEWELL HIGHLIGHTS.

With the HOPEWELL HIGHLIGHTS staff comprised of mostly Journalism 1 students, Mrs. Brenda Pleasant spent the first semester teaching basic skills to her sixth period class. The second semester found the staff members working on selling ads, writing news and feature stories, and editorials. Then page layouts were begun and the first issue of the newspaper was published in late February.

The major goal of the Tri-Hi-Y, Hi-Y this year was to prepare a bill and go to the MGA this spring. Mixed in with this undertaking were conferences at Southampton and Thomas Dale at which Manya Djiovanidis was elected as a district vice president and Mike Rawlings as chaplain. In the fall a soc-hop was held as a money-making project.

DECA students celebrated Halloween by holding a party and costume contest.

DECA began the year with the Eastern Area Vice President coming to install officers and initiate new members in September. Throughout the fall, DECA members ran concession stands at home football games, sold mums for the homecoming game, attended a workshop at VCU, hosted a parents night for parents of DECA students and held a Halloween party at which Raymond Cunningham won the costume contest.

The students delivered fruit baskets to the Convalescent Center in November and Christmas baskets to the needy in December. They also sponsored a donkey basketball game and held an open house for teachers. At the fall rally at Prince George, the Hopewell DECA chapter won the first place overall award. Other competitive events were held at Prince George, Walnut Mall Shopping Center, and the Hotel Roanoke.

FHA — Quiet but Busy!

The FHA started the year off slowly but soon were busy. They were given demonstrations in how to decorate a cake, to apply make-up, and to sew various items of clothing. They also had a fashion coordinator come to one of their meetings and give a talk about the fashions that a young person should wear to work.

Washington Trip Planned

The Art club began the year off with a new sponsor, Mr. William Cox. They had many selling projects to raise money to go towards a trip to Washington D.C. They were gone for two or three days. They planned and went on a few smaller field trips also during the year.

Drama II this year was made up of talented young actors. Their talent was displayed in many presentations. "Dionysus: A Celebration," was a great success. Drama II students performed this play for all the English classes. The group also entered "Dionysus" in competition at a festival held at Petersburg High School on March 4. Students made "druppets" and entertained the elementary schools. Every audience responded enthusiastically to the fine, young actors.

"K" Staff Fights Lack of Experience

After years of production under the direction of Mrs. Earlene Lampman, this year's KALEIDOSCOPE staff was joined with the indispensable help of Mrs. Jan Jack. With very little experience, the staff got the job under-way by selling advertisements in late July. Soon after school started, actual layouts were worked on, and staff members were kept busy through February. Working on their own time, and meeting on Tuesday nights, several hardworking staff members produced this, their best effort, the 1978 KALEIDOSCOPE.

Susan Williams, assistant editor, and Angela Vergara walk through the courtyard in between errands run for the Kaleidoscope during their third period, scheduled for yearbook work.

The Key Club had a very successful year. They collected for Christmas seals and Cystic Fibrosis. At Thanksgiving and Christmas they sponsored an elderly man. In order to go to the Convention in Reston, Va., they raised money by sponsoring a basketball clinic for youths and by selling themselves as "slaves-for-a-day." They went to many Kiwanis meetings and conducted one regular meeting.

Coach Bill Littlepage and Willie Walker instruct youths in the finer points in basketball.

SGA Sponsors Homecoming Dance

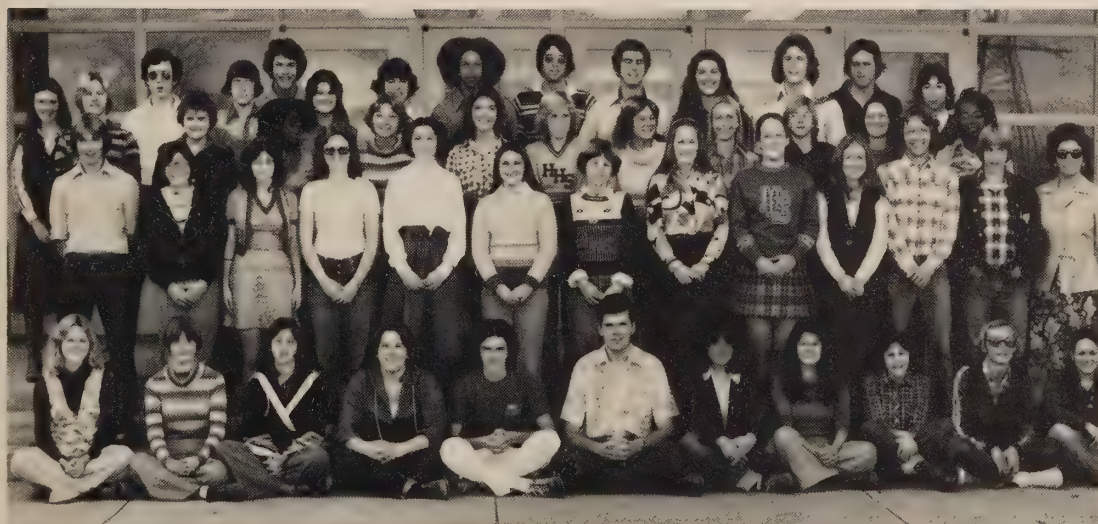

With an all new system of selecting Student Government Association representatives, the SGA organized itself into one of the most functional clubs at H.H.S. Officers David Ross, Dorian Diradour, and Angela Vergara were elected in June of the 1976-1977 school year, were joined by sponsor Mrs. Donna Butterworth, principal Mr. Ronnie Bugnar, and assistant principal Mr. Jack Daniel in selecting representatives. The SGA first revised the constitution of the club, then organized hot dog sales for all home football games, to build up the treasury. The next project was not a money-maker, rather a service to the student body. A semi-formal Homecoming dance was held for the first time on October 8 in the cafeteria, with music by "Nightflight." SGA members collected for UNICEF and made plans to hold a Dance Marathon for Muscular Dystrophy in the Spring.

The French Club started the year off with a money raising project to aid the funds in the treasury. A car wash was held at Sunoco on Cedar Level road shortly after school started. With money in the treasury, officers began making plans for the trip to Washington in February. Eating in an exotic French restaurant was also added to the list. Plans came to a halt when news of Mr. Martin (sponsor) leaving was heard. The club gave him a going-away party. He was well-liked and served as a great sponsor. Miss Drinkard replaced Mr. Martin and did a great job. The French Club ended the year with attending the Language Arts Festival.

The Spanish Club returned to Washington again this year. They visited a museum and ate dinner at a Spanish restaurant. The Club also attended a Spanish class. A big Christmas party was held where a few members played the guitar and sang. At the end of the year, the Club went to the Language Arts Festival in Richmond.

D.I.V.E.

Developing Insights Into Values Education is a program in which participating HHS students work with small groups of Carter Woodson students in the following areas: decisionmaking, self awareness, and communication skills. The high school students serve as role models for the younger students in these areas and use value clarification techniques. This implies a tremendous amount of responsibility for the older student. This is the second year for the DIVE program at HHS and the sponsors are Mrs. Springer and Mr. Tucker.

"Mixed Company" — Bigger and Better!

Mixed Company performs for the student body.

Back Again!! "Mixed Company" in its second year with a few changes, came out on top. Last year the original group had 15 members. This year the group grew to 19 members; four with experience from last year. The group performed many times under the instruction of Mrs. Carolyn Taylor for the community and school. Performances include: Homecoming game and pep rally, Hopewell Junior Women's Club, school Christmas concert, John Randolph Nursing Home, Dupont school, and the community Gong show. Several other performances have been scheduled for the year.

FBLA Wants National; COE Adds Data Processing

The FBLA has big plans for the year. Members plan to attend the regional and state conventions held in March and April. Their major goal for this year is to raise enough money to send a representative to the national convention to be held this summer. Members have sold stationery and candy as a step in that direction. Community service projects this organization has participated in include two bake sales, with all the profit going to the March of Dimes; a contribution to the United Fund and Christmas caroling over the holidays.

How do you get office work experience during the day while still going to school? COE is the answer. The COE Program has expanded its field this year and now includes Data Processing as well as Stenography and Clerk Typing. Students involved in this program receive work experience and the problems they run into on the job are worked out in the classroom. The students give a banquet at the end of the year to express appreciation to their employers without whose support this program would be impossible.

Majorettes Test Out New Ideas

Majorettes, led by Janet Edwards, began early in August getting ready for the year. They practiced every day from 8 a.m. to 12 p.m. and then again from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. By working at these practices every day they learned many marches and routines that were used in pep rallies, parades, and football games. They were in the Christmas and Hopewell Homecoming parades, and the Virginia State College Homecoming parade. As a special attraction they twirled fire to the tune of "Love's Theme" and hoop batons to "Feelings."

The Monogram Club was a newly organized club this year under the sponsorship of Coach Marshall Parker. The first order of business was to find a new style of a letterman jacket that everyone agreed on to be ordered. The club is now coed and so there were two types decided on after much discussion, one style for the boys and the other for the girls. The first shipment was in by January and lettermen wore them proudly. To be in the Monogram Club you must have received a letter in any sport that you have participated in during high school.

Hopewell is very proud of its athletes and hope that they continue to give Hopewell a fine name in sports.

This was the second year of AHEO. What is it? Well, it is the combination of Junior advanced History and English classes. The Advanced History and English Organization members are working to raise money for a trip to Boston as did last year's group. Under the leadership of sponsors Miss Louise Mann and Mrs. Kathryn Leadbetter, the club held a Christmas bazaar, a bake sale, an aluminum can drive, with other projects being planned. The AHEO also made a trip to Washington D.C.

Baseball bats, gloves, catcher's mask, hard work, and determination all helped the Devil Baseball Team to an 8-8, or for you baseball fans a 500, season. The year started out very well with a winning streak of four straight games. This placed the Devils at the top of the district. But, as in all sports, someone must lose and Hopewell did its fair share.

Ronnie Stidham clinched the title of Most Valuable Player and was also Batting Champion. Other awards went to Tim Bucciarelli, the Most Spirited; Charlie Belcher, best pitching record and Bobby Bradshaw received the Optimists President's Award.

"Over all I was very pleased with the season," Coach Marshall Parker said. This was a rebuilding year for the young and inexperienced Devils and he hopes next year's season will be even better.

Coach Jane Bishop termed the season one of "rebuilding." She said one of the season's highlights was upsetting the number one team. With a lot of hard work and enthusiasm the team steadily improved each week and Coach Bishop says she is looking forward to next year with great expectations.

Lack of Depth Hurts Again

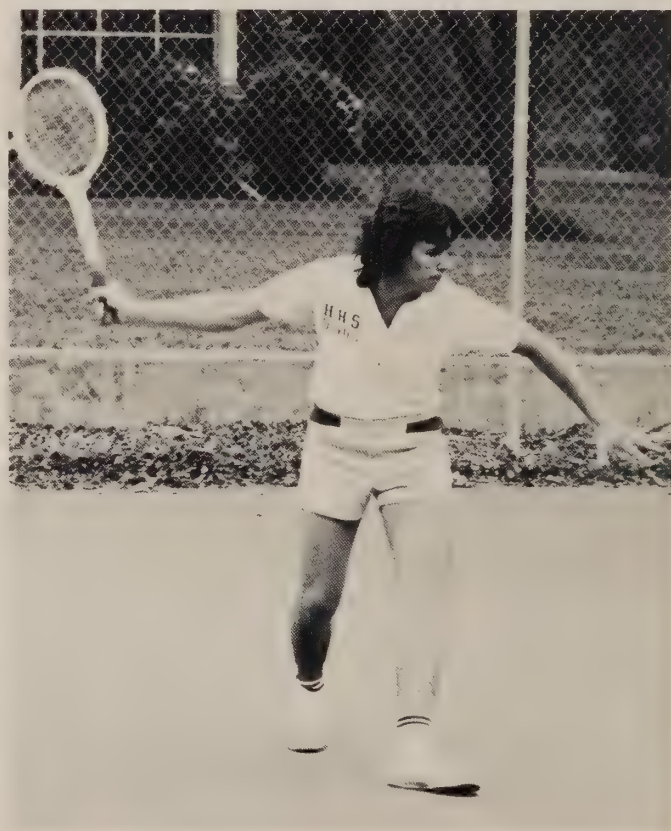

Lack of depth and the three "M's"; Manchester, Meadowbrook, and Midlothian were cited by Coach Harvey Martin as the major reasons for the '77 Tennis Season. The top five players; Eddie Garrett, Anthony Moogalian, Donnie Dodson, Peter Eliades, and George Diradour will all graduate but with lots of good and upcoming talent, Coach Martin expresses optimism for the coming season. All in all the seven wins and nine losses was not a bad season for Coach Martin's boys.

Though the girls tennis season was disappointing to some, emphasis was put on "building" for next year. Several seniors were lost for the season due to part-time jobs after school. This left a young team but through daily practice Miss Joanne Tucker managed to build a hard working team, with potential for the next few years. The Most Valuable Player award went to Teresa Sanders, and Most Improved was Virginia Reese.

Under the direction of coaches Jan Jack and Wayne Burrow, the female half of the track team finished with a 2-5-0 season.

Janet Muller led the team by dominating in all field events qualifying for the State Track and Field Championships held at Williamsburg in the high jump. Janet broke her own school record with an effort of five feet. She was also named the Most Valuable Player for the team.

Kim Toote, Robin Wyche, Dawn Thomas and Theresa Sharp were also strong contenders in the track events.

Back Together Again

After retiring for a year, the boys track team made another appearance. Opening with a tie against Dinwiddie, the boys put forth a tremendous effort, but inexperience took over and they went on to a 0-7-1 season. Coach Wayne Burrows cited Bob Jones as Most Valuable Player on the boys team for the 76-77 season. The boys were very strong in sprints, especially the 440 relay. The 440 team was made up of Chris Webb, Rodney Boyette, Bill Henry and Stefan Calos. Bill Henry also set a new school record in the two mile with a time of 10:11. Also competing for the boys track team were David Nelms in the hurdles and Lorenzo Washington in the high jump.

"Where's my putter?", "Has anyone got my new tees?", "Okay, who's got my shoes?" These cries could be heard as the golf team prepared for a match. Good driving, chipping, and putting helped bring the golfers to a 9-17-2 season.

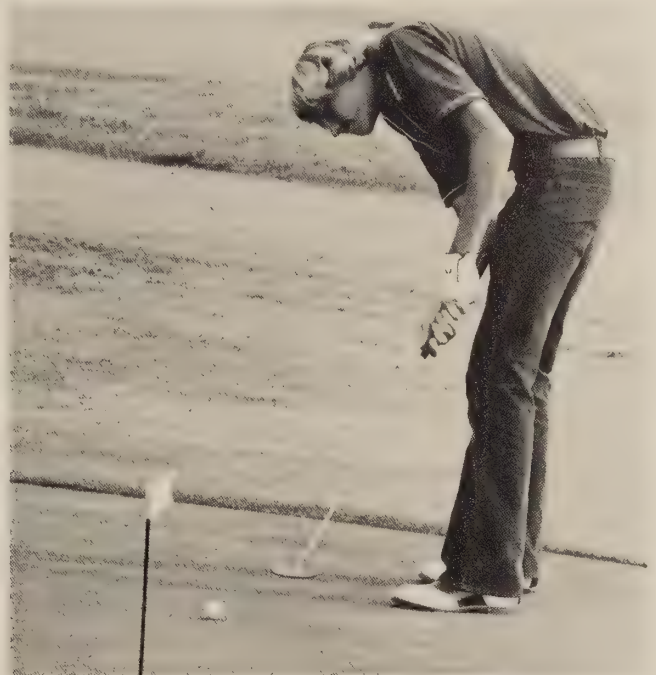

Team captain Steve Doulis was named Most Valuable Player. He also had the best overall stroke average and represented Hopewell High in the Central Regional Tournament.

Eight members of last year's team were lettermen. These were Steve Doulis, Bruce Lassiter, Mike Naulty, Mayes Marks, Mike Letson, Randy Burchett, and Kenny Narron. Coach Littlepage feels next year will be a rebuilding year as many of his good players were seniors. He still has several good players returning, one of which is Mike Letson, who was just barely edged out by Doulis for the best stroke average.

"We won some, and we lost some close ones. I would consider it an average season." That was how the coach summed up the year.

Semi-Tough

"Semi-Tough" year of improvement and great expectations, as said by Coach Larry Carter, is certainly true. The Blue Devils upped their record this year to 5-5 for the season. Besides upping their record, many received honors. Among some honors presented at a banquet given by the Optimist Club were: Willie Jackson, "Most Spirited;" Albert Lee Harris, "M.V.P. on Offense;" Willie Walker, "Most Improved;" Bruce Daniel, "Best Blocker;" Steve Miller, "Most Academic;" Mike Dixon, "Best Tackler;" and Ronnie Stidham, "M.V.P. on Defense," and recipient of the President's Award. Also given to other Devils were letters and certificates. Along with the honors presented at the Optimist banquet Ronnie Stidham and Albert Lee Harris were selected by area coaches for the All-TriCity first team. However they were not the only ones to make All-TriCity, Bruce Daniel, Willie Jackson, and Willie Walker were selected for the second team. So it could be said that "Semi-Tough" sums up the 77-78 football season.

Hockey Team's Future

This year the Girl's Field Hockey team got off to a good start. They had a new coach with new ideas, many new members, and only three Seniors that would not be back next year. But then, all good things must come to an end. The coach, Miss Kathy Bond, teaches at Woodlawn Elementary School, which burned one night, causing the students and faculty to go to Dupont on a split schedule. This meant the coach could not be at the high school for practices until after 4:30, and with that, practice often lasted until late in the evening. This, of course, caused a drop in attendance. But, where there's a will, there's a way.

"Hey Donna, which way did you say it went?" Charla Ratliff seems to be saying to Donna Bollier.

Rosalyn Worthan seems determined to make a goal, with her opponent in pursuit.

Eileen Burrows gives goalie, Mary Armstrong, a little help as the opposing team attempts to score.

Cathy Richeson concentrates on her drives before the game begins.

Looking Good!!!

The team would be on the field practicing on their own each afternoon until the coach arrived.

Although the hockey team won only one game in its regular season, they played very well in the Central District Tournament at John F. Kennedy High School. Charla Ratliff, playing her second year in the fullback position, was named to the central district team, also getting an Honorable Mention, was Mary Armstrong, a first year goalie.

Coach Kathy Bond gathers the team around her for pre-game instructions and a pep talk.

Hard Work Took "Our" Girls to Regionals!!

During a hot break, the team rests while Coach Jane Bishop checks the score board and ponders the upcoming moves.

Darlene Epps shoots a high jumper that just had to be good.

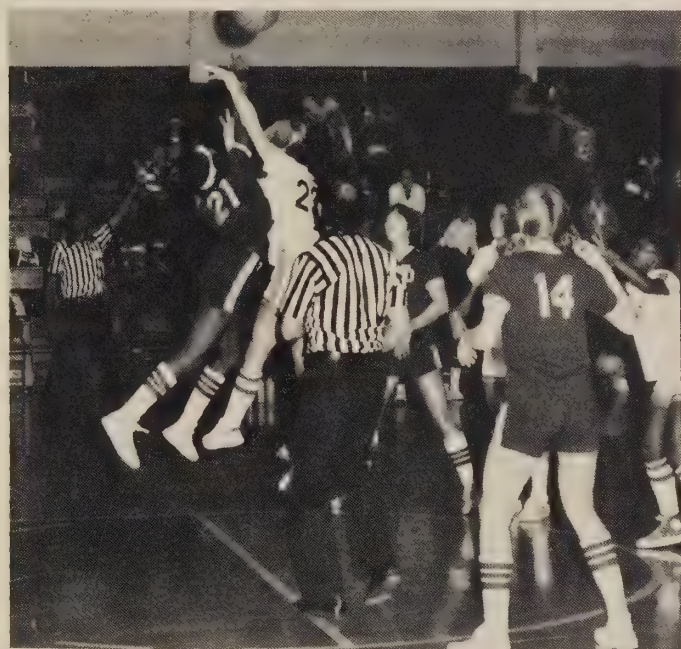

Coach Jane Bishop saw this season as a year of strange competition throughout the district; not knowing really where we stood in the standings but knowing that we were right in with the best. Most of all, proving we were the BEST when the tournament came — #1.

Johnna Casey outmaneuvers a Thomas Dale opponent as Darlene Epps prepares to assist.

One on One

"It was a pretty satisfying season," summed up coach Bill Littlepage upon reflecting on the Blue Devil basketball season. This year held many unexpecteds. Defeating the previously undefeated Petersburg Crimson Waves claimed much of the coaches praise.

Recording the 200th basketball victory since the opening of the new high school was also a great Highlight. Coach Littlepage held much praise for his team on their seven game winning streak which was put together in mid-season. Overall with the lack of experience and the many newcomers to the game this season was "very satisfying."

"Inexperience" is the one word to describe the 1977-78 Wrestling Team. Only two lettermen, Todd Butterworth and Mike Cunningham returned for the 2-10 season. The varsity team had two new freshmen and four new sophomore starters. The large turnout at the beginning of the season did add to the dedicated wrestlers who completed it. This optimistic group had only one negative feeling and this was best expressed by team captain Todd Butterworth. He said, "There was a great lack of fan participation; this really dampens enthusiasm."

The winner, Wayne Henry.

The "King" Is Dead!

Elvis Presley poses for one of his first pin-up pictures as a sex symbol and singer.

August 16, 1977 was a day of mourning for thousands of people throughout the world. That was the day that Elvis Presley, 42, died a multi-millionaire of an apparent heart condition. Elvis was a hero to many people, both young and old. His famous songs, such as "Jailhouse Rock" and "Return to Sender" started the rock era in music. His concerts were always sell-outs and people came from everywhere in the world just to see Elvis perform. His death brought tears to many eyes and fans came to his funeral from every corner of the world to get one last look at their "King."

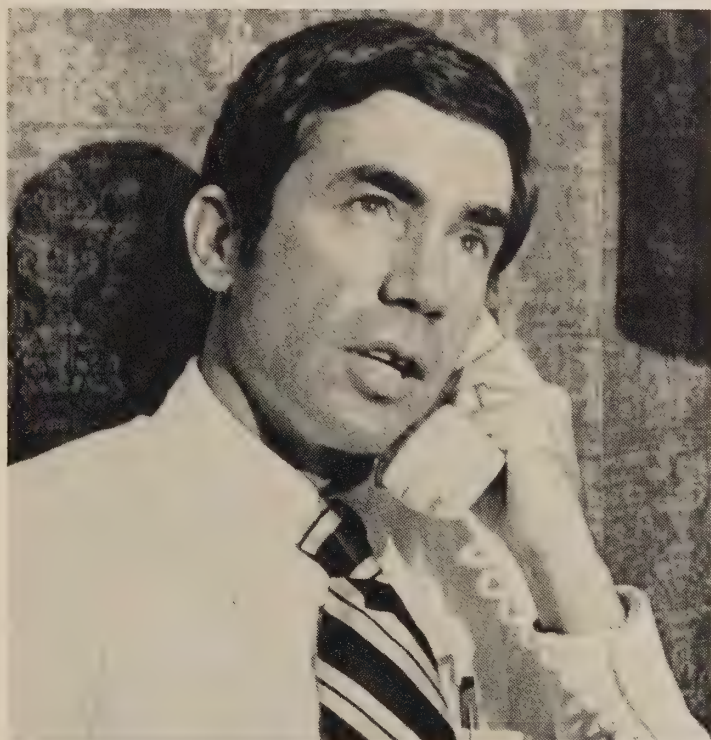

Elvis relaxes after one of his many sell-out concerts.

Dalton Is New Governor

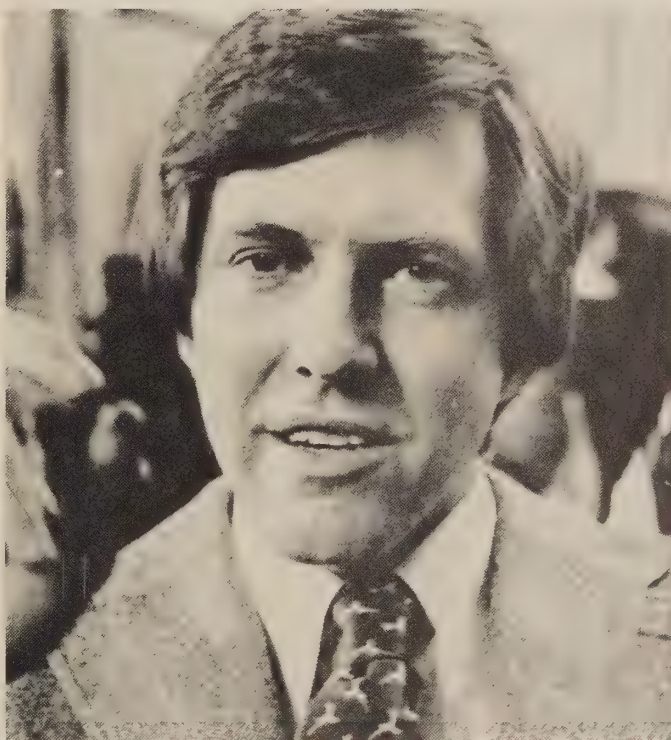

John Dalton talks about his plans for Virginia in the coming years at a News Conference held recently.

After months of long campaigning and hard work, November 8th finally arrived. People all over the state went to the polls to vote for their favorite candidate. Volunteer campaign workers, both young and old, handed out last minute pamphlets, flyers, and buttons. When the polls closed at seven o'clock, votes began to be counted. Television sets and radios were turned on in order to hear election results. Late in the night, John Dalton, a Republican, was declared Virginia's new Governor after beating out Henry Howell. Democrat Chuck Robb was victorious over Joe Canada for Lieutenant Governor, and Republican Marshall Coleman won by a slim margin over Ed Lane for Attorney General. The three new leaders of Virginia were inaugurated on January 14 at the Capitol in Richmond and that night inauguration balls were held in various hotels and motels throughout Richmond.

Chuck Robb checks on campaigning plans from his office.

Marshall Coleman attempts to gain votes as he talks to a crowd about changes for Virginia.

Holly Clatterbuck, who assisted Mr. Strong's secretary on Youth Day, does a bit of filing in his office.

Bobby Winne and Mr. Clinton H. Strong, Hopewell's City Manager, discuss the duties of City Manager.

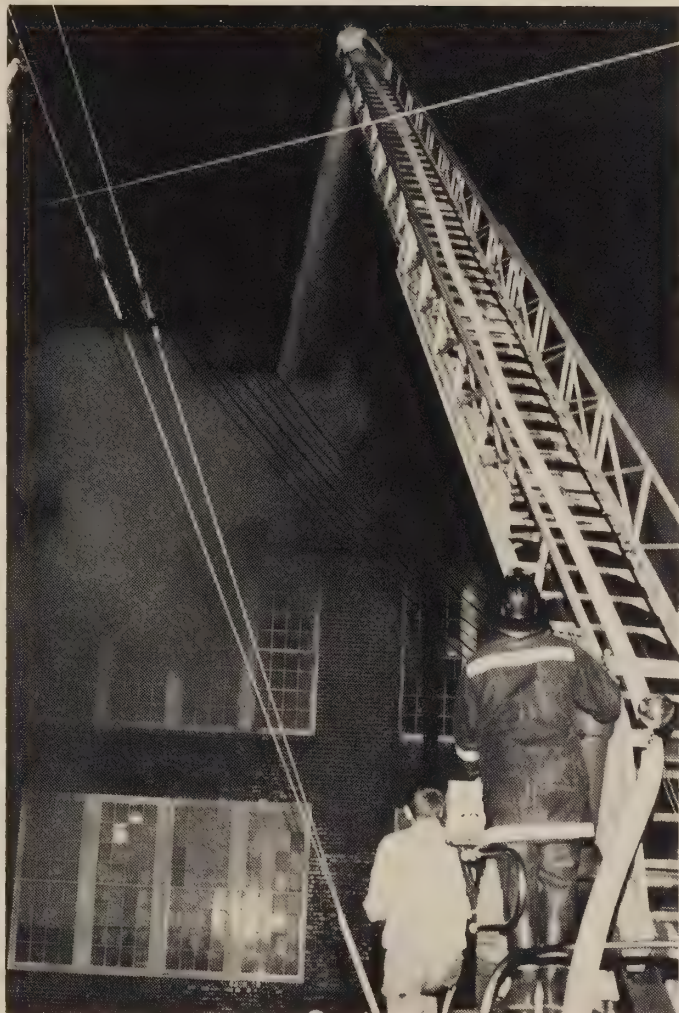

November 8th, 1977, was marked as "Youth in Government Day." Several members of the Senior Government classes participated in some capacity in this project. A student City Council was elected by the Senior class, including Toy Spatig, mayor, Rush Smith, Matt Broughton, Chip Halstead, and Merle Comfort. Then the various city employees were chosen by this City Council from student, submitted applications. On Nov. 8th, high school students went to the Municipal building downtown to observe the jobs of the actual city employee which they were chosen for. It was a day of learning, because many of the students were never aware of the work done for the city of Hopewell.

At the end of a successful day of learning, the students held a mock City Council meeting. Toy Spatig conducted the order of the meeting.

Woodlawn BURNS!!

Firefighters use an extension ladder to fight the blaze and smoke billowing out of the roof.

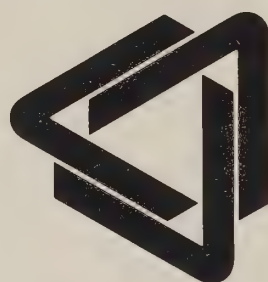

It started out as an ordinary fall night. Then suddenly Woodlawn Elementary School burst into flames. Hundreds of people gathered to watch as one of Hopewell's oldest schools burned. Many of the on-lookers were former students of the school. Younger children saw their books, desks, and pencils quickly diminish with the flames. Smoke filled half the city and fire trucks were called in from all the surrounding cities. Finally, after about six hours of hard work, the firemen had the fire under control. The next few weeks parents, the school board, and students held regular meetings to work out a solution to the problem. It was decided that Woodlawn students would attend Dupont school from 12:30 to 4:30, and Dupont students would go from 8:00 to 12:00. Woodlawn was worked on and parts were torn down. Finally, after months of strenuous work, Woodlawn was reopened and students happily returned to their daily routine.

Work begins in tearing down Woodlawn and preparing it for students once again.

'K' STAFF SAYS BOOK IS FOR THE STUDENTS. . .

This seems to always be the phrase heard by all students at Hopewell High School. Without seeming to be boorish or repetitious, this year's book is for you the subscriber — the Hopewell High School student!

A brand new staff, a totally and utterly inexperienced advisor got together with your suggestions and created a more traditional book as you wanted. We, the staff and advisor, are extremely pleased with the final results and sincerely hope you are as pleased.

It goes without saying, that a lot of cooperation from outside sources really helped make this book possible. Our sincere thanks to the following Hopewell News personnel who helped boost and augment our picture needs: Mrs. Ruth Shuey, Hank Bilyeu and Harry Miller. Also, many thanks to Mr. Lewis Bailey for the use of the darkroom in his classroom.

Without the total cooperation and patience of the administration, faculty and staff throughout the year with all the interruptions and diversions we would never have made it.

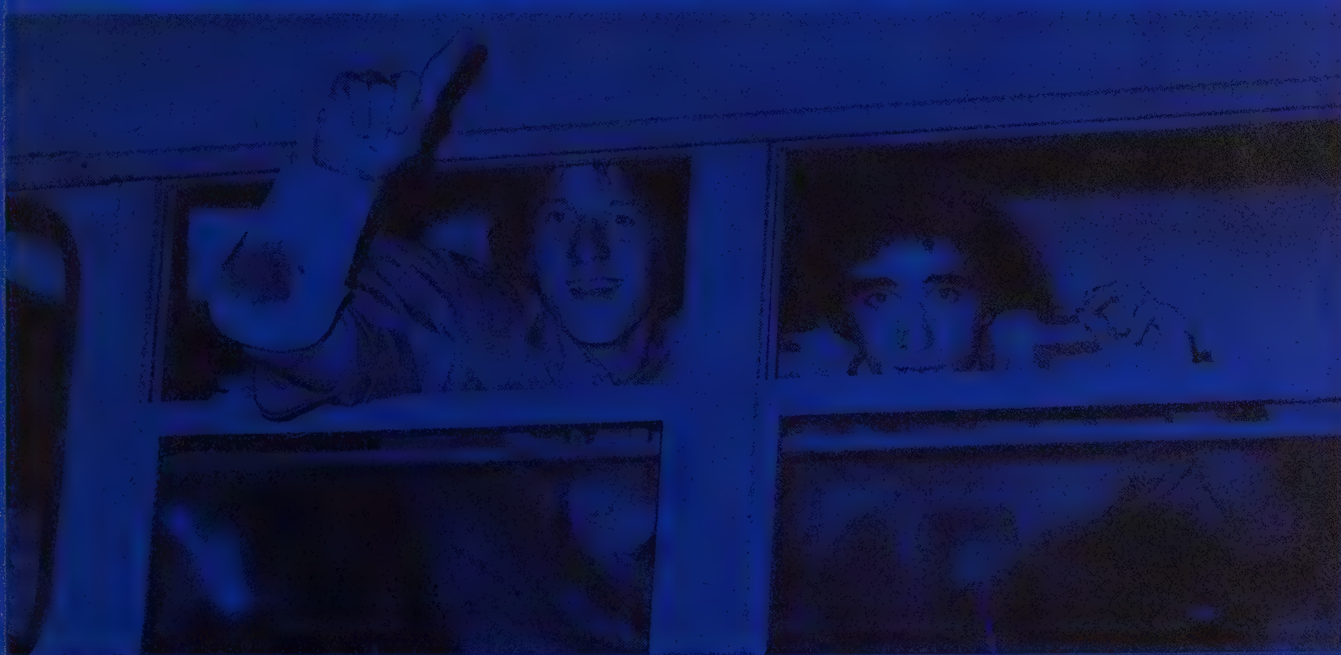

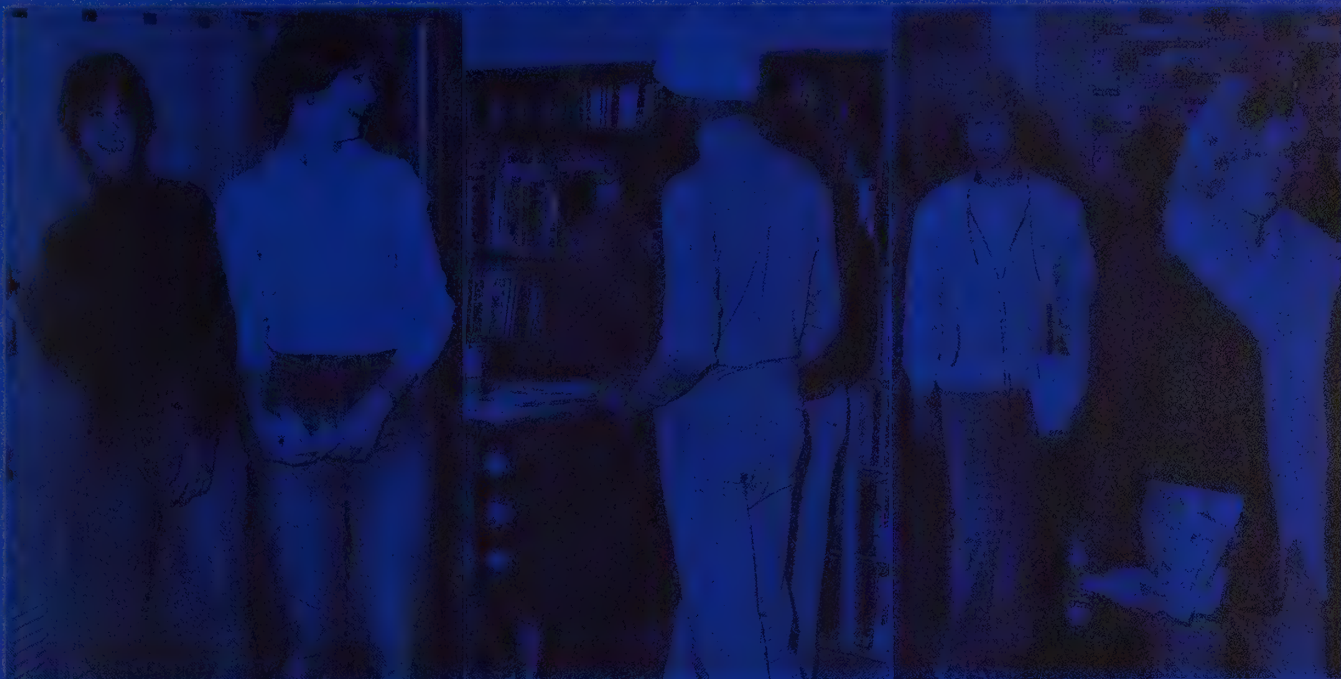

Mr. Danny DeFalco of the Taylor Publishing Company; Jim, Darryl, and John of Rem-Pac all provided invaluable time and assistance in making our yearbook a reality.

Once again, many many thanks to everybody for everything!!! Now, a very tired, proud and "experienced" staff and their advisor are going to take a well deserved rest!

To the three young men who gave us so much in so short a time.
